

Clean Vehicle Dealer and Seller Energy Credits Online Registration

User Guide

This is the first release of Energy Credits Online. Future releases will contain enhanced functionality.

Register Your Business

If your dealership runs into difficulty at any point in the registration process, please contact IRS.Clean.Vehicles.Dealer.Info@IRS.gov with questions.

This user guide is meant to help dealerships and sellers of clean vehicles register for an online account and a dealer registration so that time of sale reports can be filed, and advance payments can be made.

The IRS uses ID.me, a technology provider, to provide identity verification and sign-in services.

- If you have an ID.me account, just sign in. Don't create a new ID.me account for your business.
- If you're a new user, have your photo identification ready. Verify your personal identity – not your business information – with ID.me.

Have the following items on hand for registration:

- Business name as listed on Federal tax return.
- Business EIN
- If a licensed dealer, dealer license number
 - If your business has more than one, only one is needed. This is the dealer license number that will be used on all your clean vehicle credit sale reports.
- A file copy of the dealer license with .pdf, .png or .jpg extension
- Bank account and routing number if registering for credit transfer.

Notes to users:

- Only 1 user initially allowed for the dealership.
- This first user will be able to authorize additional users later this year.
- The business needs to be in tax compliance for advance payments, if non-compliant you will not be able to complete registration for advance payments. Visit IRS.gov/payments to make a payment.

This guide is meant for an example of how to register. It is not intended to cover every scenario.

Sign In or Create a New Account

IRS now offers a sign-in option with ID.me, which offers access to IRS online services with a secure account that protects your privacy.

ID.me is an account created, maintained, and secured by a technology provider.

If you don't have an ID.me account, you must create a new account.

i Business tax accounts are currently limited to Sole Proprietors.

Based on our records, you may not have access to a business tax account.

Reasons why you may not have access:

- You are not the sole proprietor nor a designated employee of a sole proprietorship
- You are a sole proprietorship, but don't have an Employer Identification Number (EIN)
- You recently registered your business (it could take up to 7 business days for the business to show up in your account)
- Your authorized access expired
- You declined or failed to accept role within 45 days. Contact your sole proprietor for re-designation.
- Sole proprietor removed you as an authorized business user

Think you should have access? Reach out to your sole proprietor.

Dealers and Sellers

New for 2024, clean energy tax credits allow buyers to transfer credits to dealers at the time of sale. To be eligible, you must meet time-of-sale reporting requirements and be fully registered for Advance Payments.

Registrations

To report clean vehicle sales to the IRS, please register below:

Time-of-sale Reporting
Register for time-of-sale reporting. It only takes about 15 minutes. Then, at sale, submit a time-of-sale report and get copies for both you and the buyer.

- State-licensed dealers can submit time-of-sale reports for new clean vehicles (IRC 30D) and used clean vehicles (25E)
- Sellers without a state license can submit time-of-sale reports for new clean vehicles (IRC 30D)

Advance Payments (state-licensed dealers only)
Register to receive advanced payments. This allows buyers to transfer their clean vehicle credits to state-licensed dealers at time of purchase.
